We ask you not to use this product anymore

As part of our quality processes, Kalenji and Geonaute teams have identified a potential risk : Battery is likely to overheat during recharge, and may expose users to a potential fire/burning risk.

This phenomenon only occurs in very rare situations (only 1 known case identified), however we do not want to take any chances regarding our users safety, and we decided to recall all our products.

As a precautionary measure, we invite you to return your product in the nearest store in order to get a refund.

Our customer relationship center is available to answer any questions you may have on this matter. You can contact them via email: help.switzerland@decathlon.com or per phone: 032 756 70 70 from Monday to Saturday from 9:00 to 18:00.
